

Babatunji I farinu

Babatunji Ifarinu (Tunji) provides workshops and trainings covering topics such as motivating and recognizing the genius in youth, Cultural Competence training, instruction for culturally and linguistically diverse students, and English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL). Tunji is currently the Assistant Principal at one of the most diverse elementary schools in the country, and has worked with a wide variety of students since 1997. He was formerly a Classroom teacher in which he delivered instruction to African American, as well as immigrant and refugee students.

As an ELL Success Facilitator in one of the largest and most diverse school district in Georgia, he has facilitated workshops to improve instruction for culturally and linguistically diverse students. He is also a W.I.D.A. certified trainer. Tunji has delivered professional learning and other workshops for educators, parents, and students. He was also an ESOL Academic Data Coach at a Middle School that has a student population that is more than a third English language learners. In this position he provided support with content delivery, data collection, and developed an instructional plan called “Planning To S.W.I.R.L.” focusing on improving literacy for all students.

Babatunji believes in using “practical and tactical” strategies, while delivering paradigm shifting information that can be immediately utilized in the classroom or at home. In addition, he uses his experience in facilitating team building workshops to create interactive and energetic professional development for teachers and inspirational, motivational sessions for students.
