

Keene M. Walker

Bringing an authentic and refreshing new perspective to the field of education, the young, passionate, and masterful motivator known for his countless achievements, Keene M. Walker trains and encourages thousands through his speeches and seminars throughout the country.

Mr. Walker, a native of Thomaston, Georgia, is a noted educator, public speaker, community activist, civic leader, consultant, and advice columnist of the soon to be released, “All of Us, Reading and Learning Together”, children’s magazine. For over fifteen years, he has been a trailblazer for pre-college aged students. His passion to educate the youth has brought awareness to communities in regards to the social, academic, and economic concerns of young adults. This educator and entrepreneur provides a candid, real, and relevant message and is one of America’s newest intellectuals on issues including team building, self development, cultural awareness, gangs.

In 1996, Mr. Walker graduated Summa Cum Laude from Alabama State University, earning a Bachelor of Science Degree in Social Science Education. In 1996, he also became a public school teacher for Montgomery Public Schools (MPS). In 2001, he was honored as both a WSFA Golden Apple Teacher of the Week and a Golden Apple Teacher of the Year. Furthermore, he was recognized by the Choral Music Department at George Washington Carver High School as Teacher of the Year during the same academic school year.

In 2001, Mr. Walker relocated and continued his quest to educate in Atlanta, GA. He was immediately recognized as the Teacher of the Month in 2002 at North Clayton High School in College Park, GA and also honored as a “Star Teacher” in 2003 in Clayton County. In 2005, Mr. Walker formed Dare 2 Care Technologies, LLC, presently known as Dare 2 Care, LLC. The mission of the business is to elevate the educational, cultural, financial, and spiritual well being of humanity. He serves as co-owner, president, and chief executive officer of this progressive small business.

Currently, he serves as a certified Gang Education Trainer for National Concerned Officers (CSI), and he served on a team (V.O.I.C.E.S.) that worked on an initiative in Bermuda to bring awareness and alternatives to gang life during the summer of 2006. Moreover, he continues to inspire the youth as a teacher, mentor, SGA Advisor, Beta Club Sponsor and Advisor for Brothers Building up Brothers (B.B.B.) in Atlanta Public Schools. Furthermore, he was recognized as the “2010 and 2011 Star Teacher” in APS, and he was given a proclamation for his community work by the Fulton County Commissioners’ Office. Keene Walker is the 2012 Teacher of the Year at Therrell’s School of Health Sciences and Research also. He routinely speaks at metro Atlanta schools for career day and continues to be active with both Atlanta’s and Clayton County’s PTA. Mr. Walker maintains alliances with organizations such as Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., National Concerned Officers (CSI), Let Us Make Man, SCLC, GA Sickle Cell Foundation, National Action Network, Going Against the Grain and 20/20 Enterprises. He is happily married to Mrs. Tammy P. Walker, and they are the proud parents of two gorgeous children, Jazzmine and Keene, Jr. As a husband, father, teacher, consultant, and mentor, he remains committed to fighting for civil rights, social justice and educational equality. He is a member of Southside Church of Christ.

If you are interested in booking Keene Walker for a speaking engagement or training, he can be reached via email at: dub5waka@hotmail.com. He may also be reached by phone at (770) 374-3902 or fax at (770) 994-8177 Please allow 24-48 hours to respond to emails due to a heavy travel schedule.